

Option 3 – No region selected this option

Region Finals will be open to all members who are financial and membership eligible regardless if they have points.

A member with a sizeable lead in the year-end Region standings and decides not to enter the Finals and still wins the year-end championship after conclusion of the Finals can still qualify to the INFR.

The 50% rule applies to qualify to the INFR.

Entry Fees and Added Money will be announced no later than 2 weeks prior to opening of Entries.

The Finals will be: 2 Separate Rodeos - NO AVERAGE POINTS or AVERAGE PAYOUTS will be awarded

Go round will be awarded as follows

1st - 10	6th - 5
2nd - 9	7th - 4
3rd - 8	8th - 3
4th - 7	9th - 2
5th - 6	10th - 1

If there is a tie for Sudden Death or Year-end winners going to the INFR there will be a rope, ride or run off at the finals rodeo.

Finals winner or Sudden Death winner will be determined by the fastest total time from both days or the highest total score on two head of bucking stock from both days (i.e. Average Winner).

The Year-end Champions be determined after the Region Finals based on total points including the region finals points.
